

March 2008 Construction Industry Briefs

DEBRA KALANI

McFadden Insurance has appointed Debra Kalani to commercial insurance broker/risk management advisor. Kalani will produce, service and market all lines of property and casualty commercial insurance through the U.S. She will advise and counsel clients and personnel on contract risks and compliance issues as well as their insurance programs. Kalani has lived in northwest Las Vegas for more than 17 years. For seven of those years, she worked as an insurance broker at a rival firm. Kalani has received several top sales awards in her time as an insurance broker. She is also active in the community and volunteers for the Arthritis Foundation.